

Variety Program Series for 2010

The Maple Street Chapel will present three programs in the variety series in 2010.

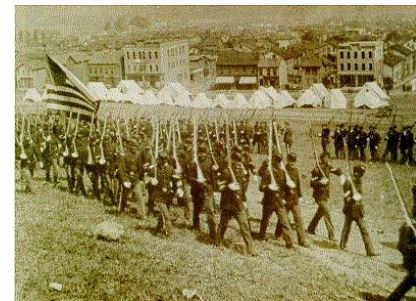

Saturday, March 6 7:30 P.M.	Terry Lynch performing as Teddy Roosevelt	$15
Sunday, March 27 7:30 P.M.	Bob Kowalski: “Fabulous Forties”	$15
Sunday, April 25 3:00 P.M.	American Heritage: “140th Anniversary Gala”	$20
Special Discount Price for All Three Programs		$40

Terry Lynch will perform as Teddy Roosevelt. Terry performed as Benjamin Franklin last year, and we loved him. “We have duties to others and duties to ourselves, and we can shirk neither.” Having just completed his second term as president, Theodore Roosevelt will reflect on his triumphs and failures, primarily on his White House years.

Bob Kowalski is a puppeteer and ventriloquist. In a program titled “Fabulous Forties”, Bob (and his little friend) will perform songs of the '40s, '50s, and '60s, inviting the audience to identify the songs and to sing along.

The 10th “American Heritage” concert will commemorate the chapel’s 140th birthday, including “Birthday Variations”, Happy Birthday to You played in the styles of all musical eras from Renaissance through Jimi Hendrix rock. The highlight of the program will be a narrated piece The Story of the Battle Hymn of the Republic, complete with choir. It tells the story of the familiar tune’s birth as Canaan’s Happy Shore, and its evolution to John Brown’s Body and finally Elizabeth Ward Howe’s stirring Battle Hymn.
